The book you are about to read
Is largely the work of Duff Paulin.
The art work and layouts are of his creation.
Although Duff was tragically taken from us
On May 9, 1967, he will long be remembered
By his classmates, teachers and friends
For his warm personality, his smile,
His talent and this book
Which we dedicate in his memory.

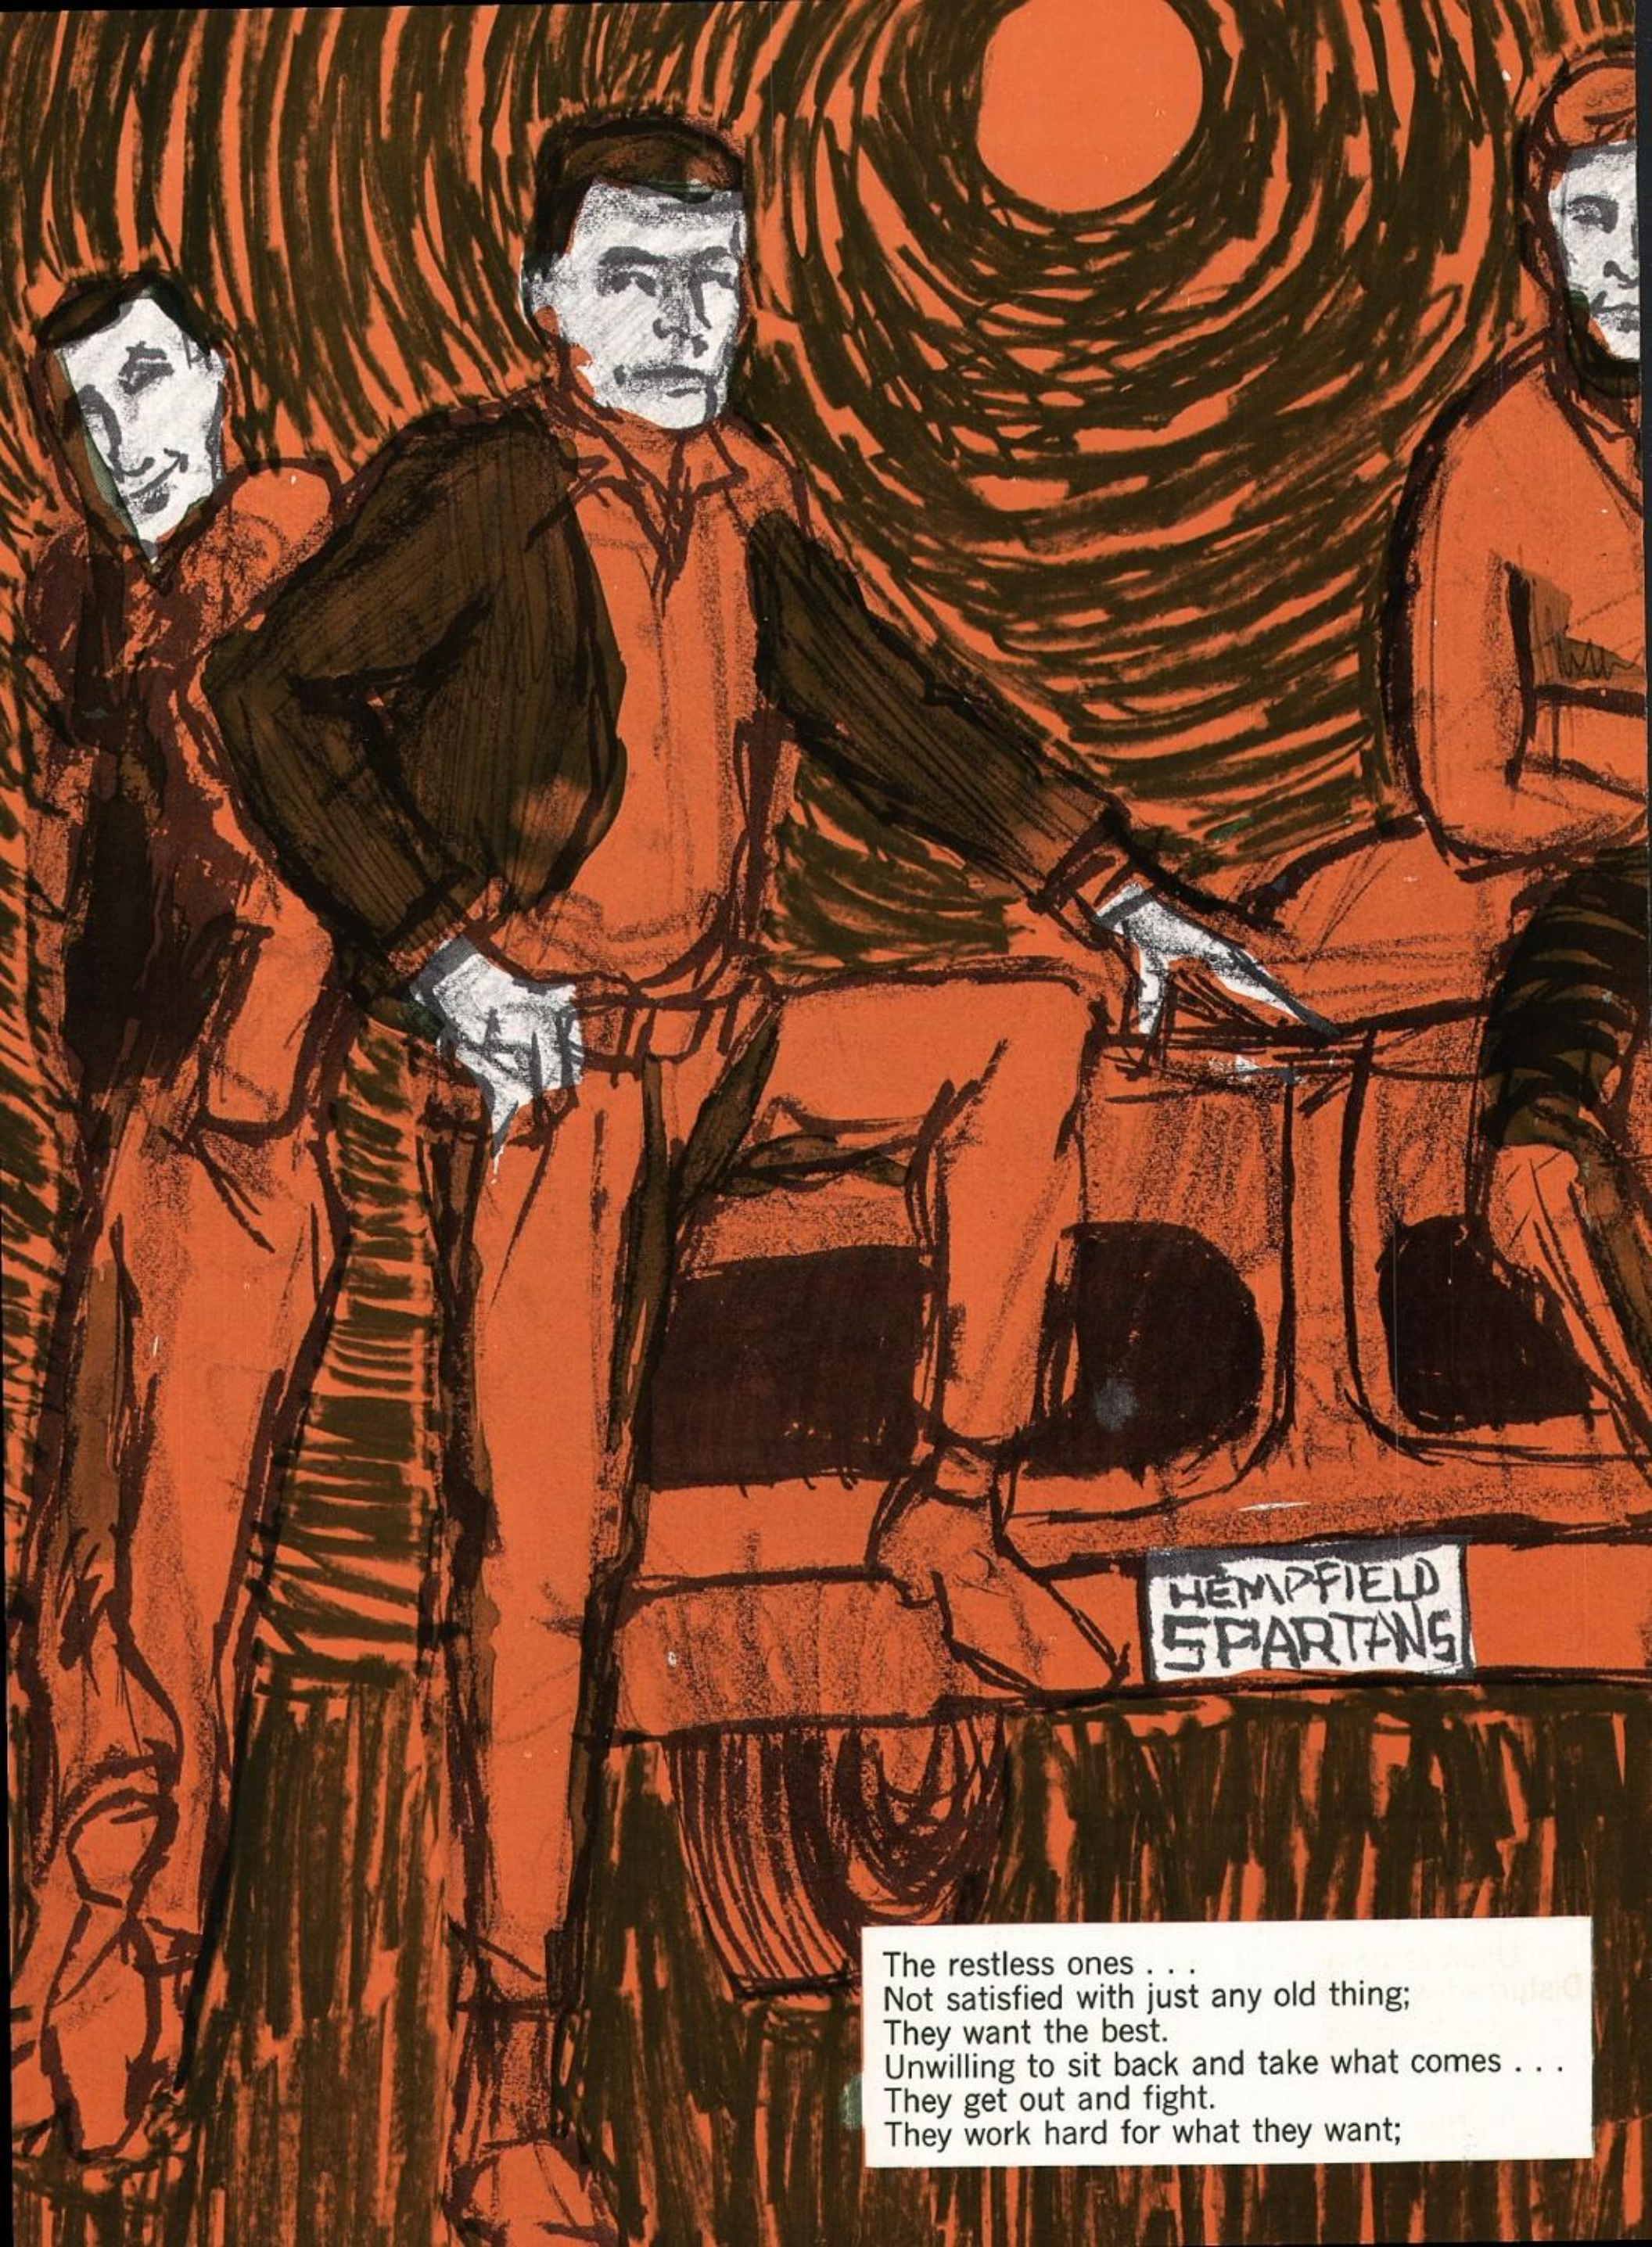

SPARTONIAN 1967

HEMPFIELD AREA SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL • GREENSBURG, PENNSYLVANIA

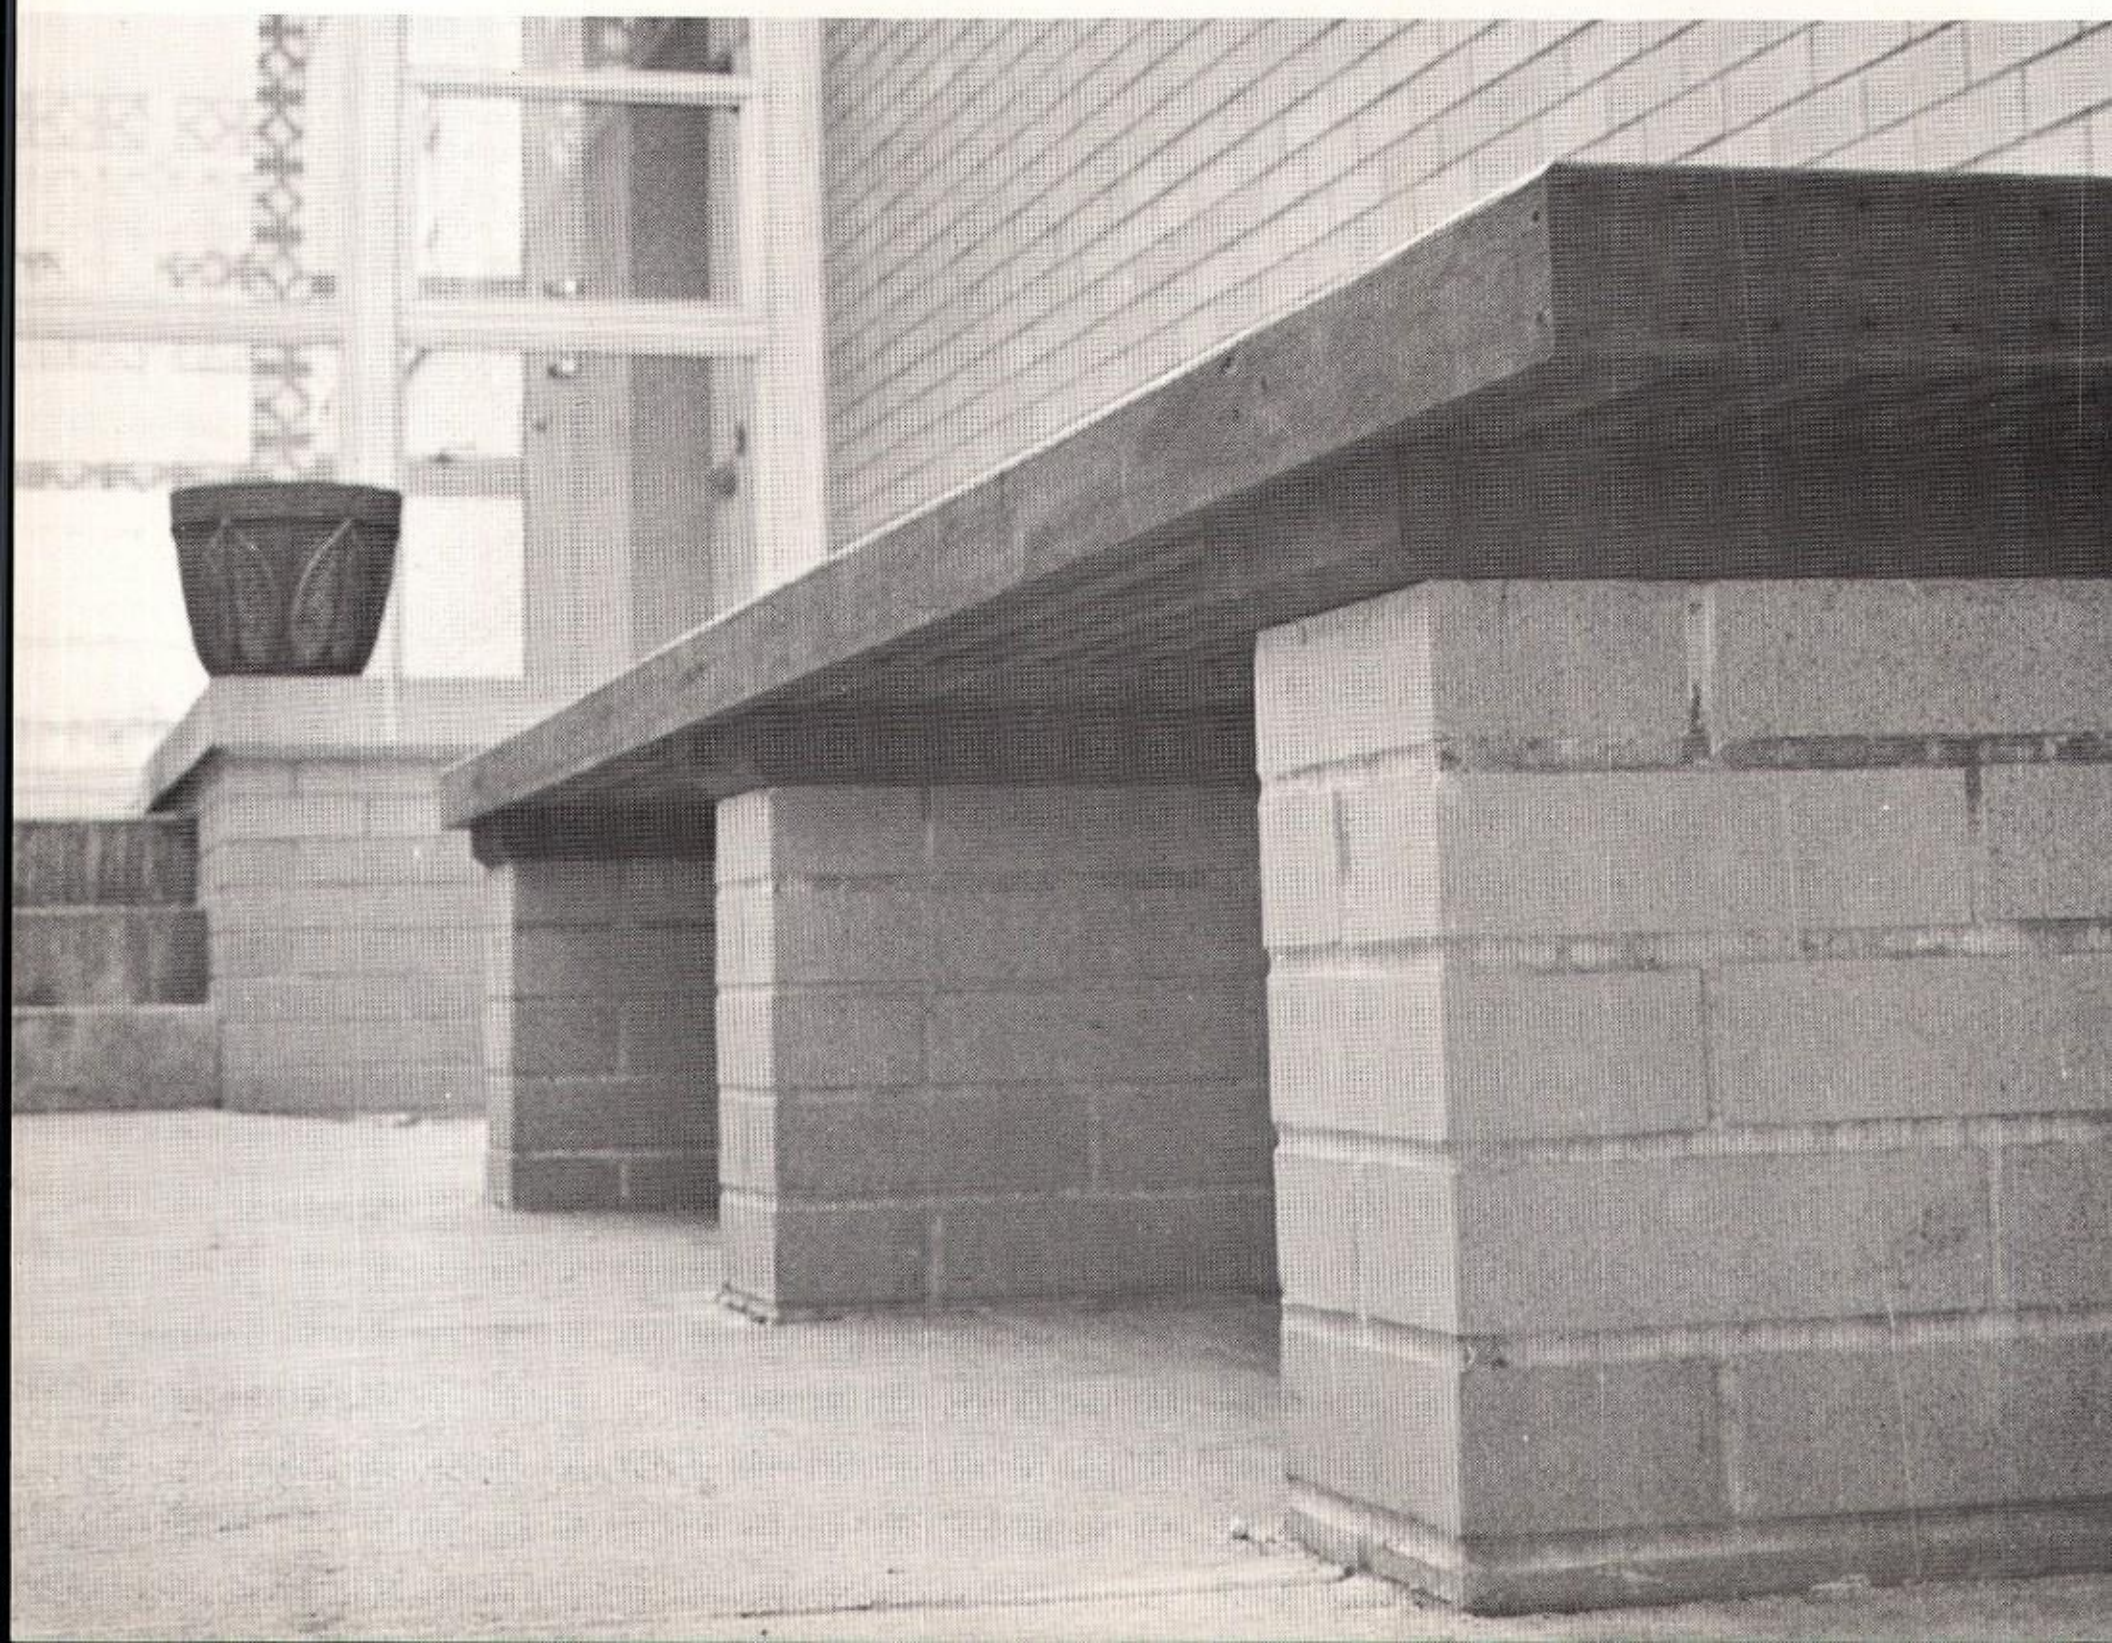

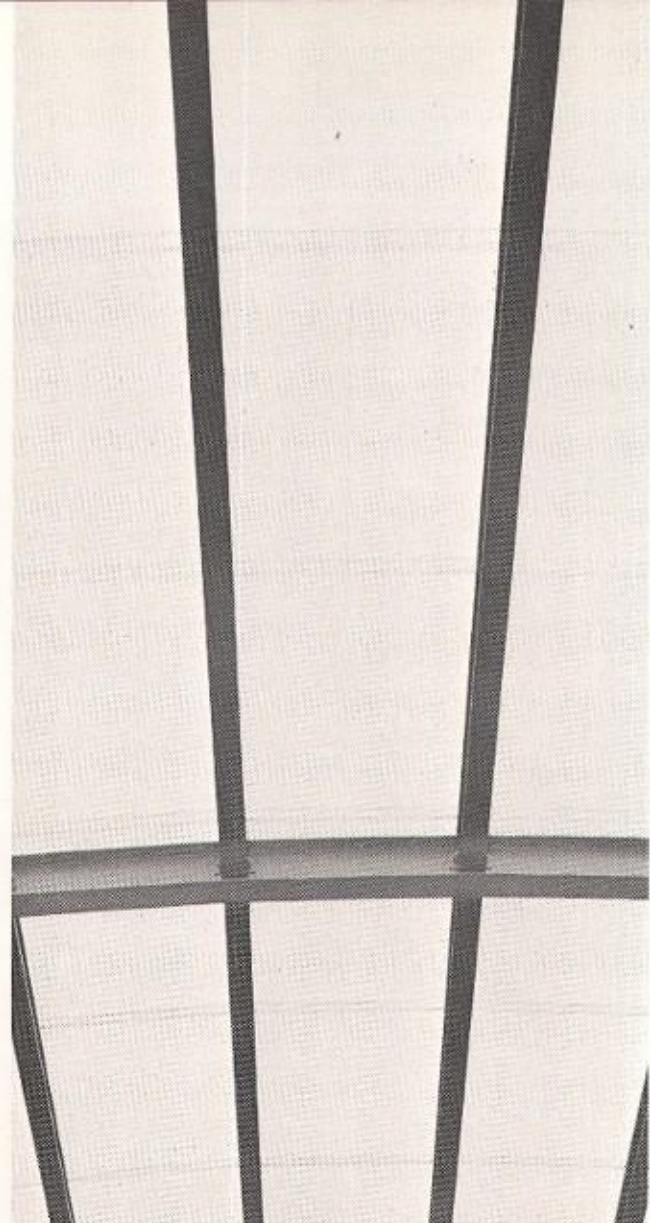

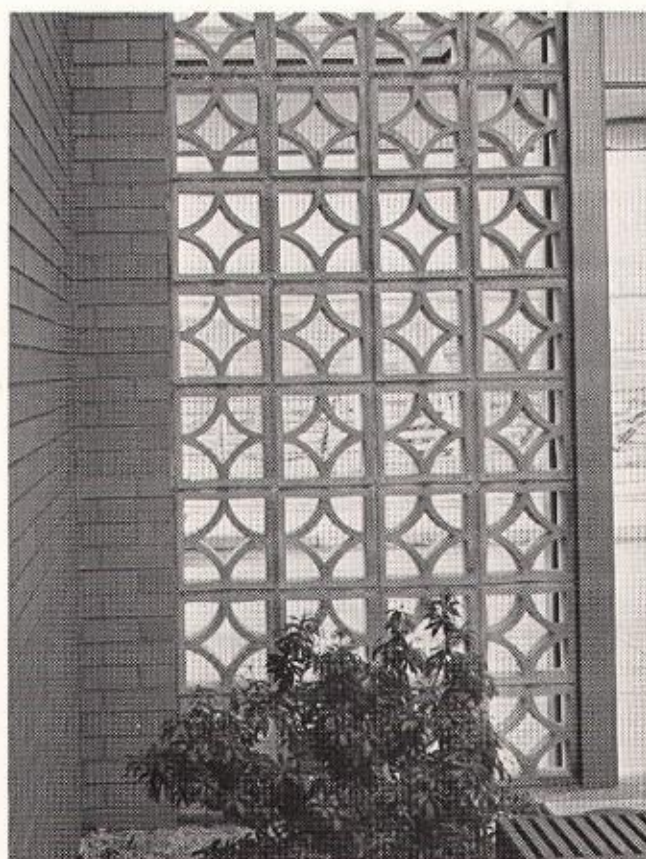

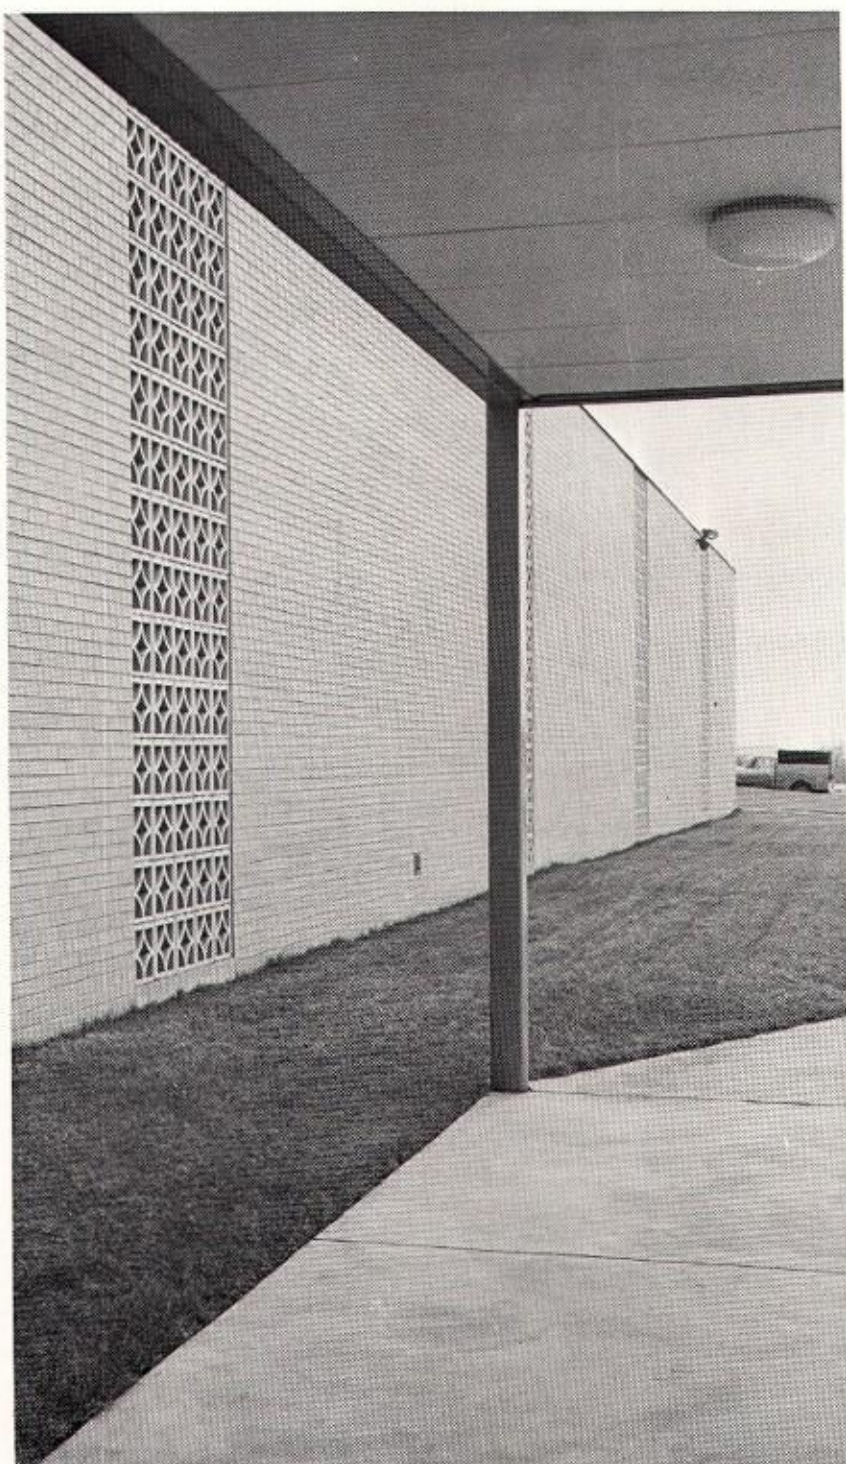

HEMPFIELD
SPARTANS

The restless ones . . .
Not satisfied with just any old thing;
They want the best.
Unwilling to sit back and take what comes . . .
They get out and fight.
They work hard for what they want;

Upon reaching their goal, they value it.
Disturbed with conformity . . . they protest.
Challenged with impossible dreams,
They try and they accomplish.
The restless ones?
The important ones . . . teen-agers.

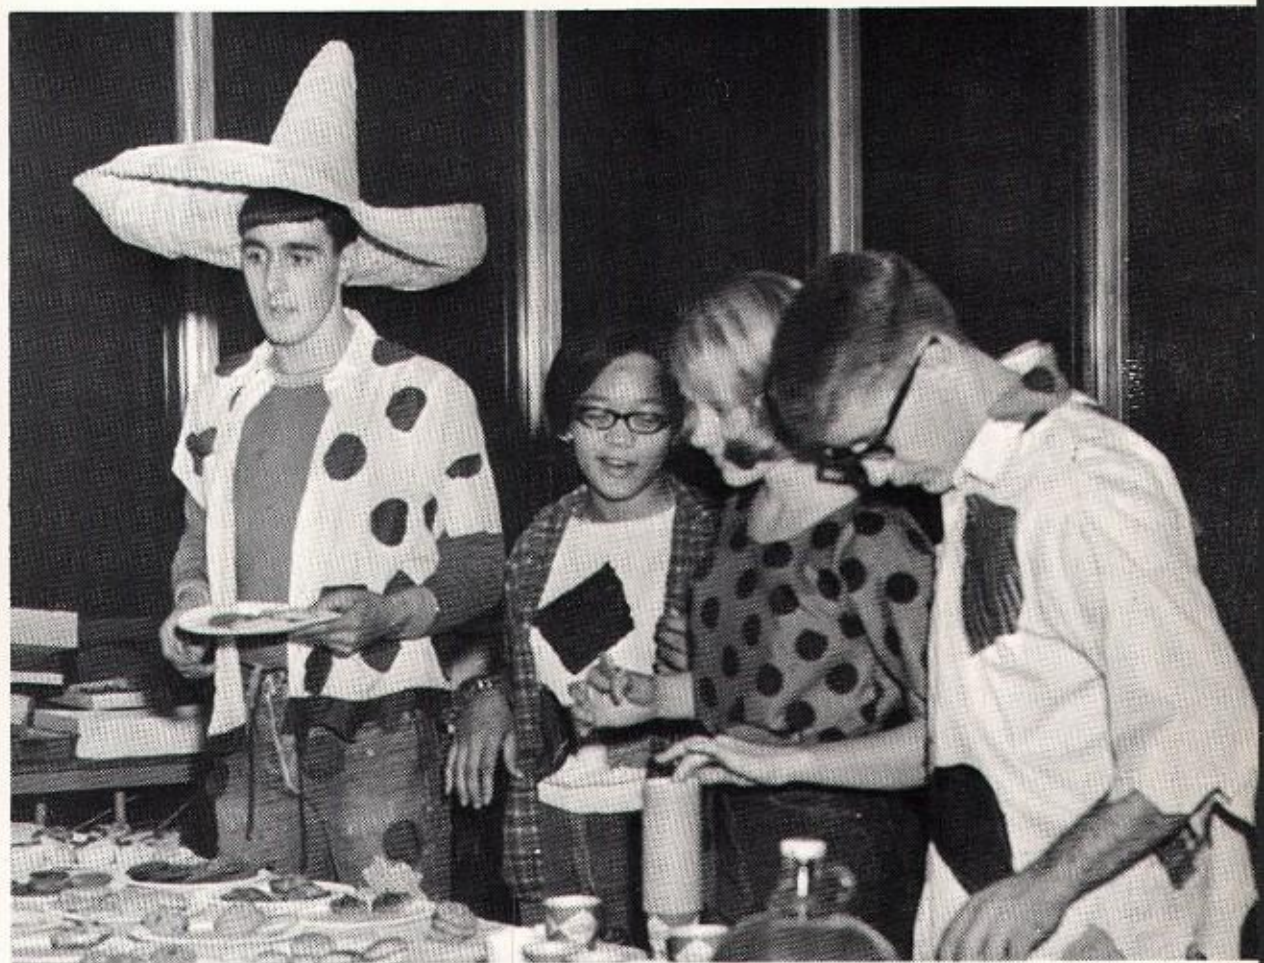

Sadie Hawkins Dance

Well folks, guess what time it jest was agin!
 You're doggone right;
 it were that neat ole dance.
 You know, the Sadie Hawkins Dance.
 Yep; everyone were jest hevin' a big time.
 Why thar were the crownin' of John Wolicki and Bonnie Thompson as Li'l Abner and his gal, Daisy Mae.
 We all set around drinkin' our cider
 and chompin' on some of them thar cookies.
 It sure were a grand night.

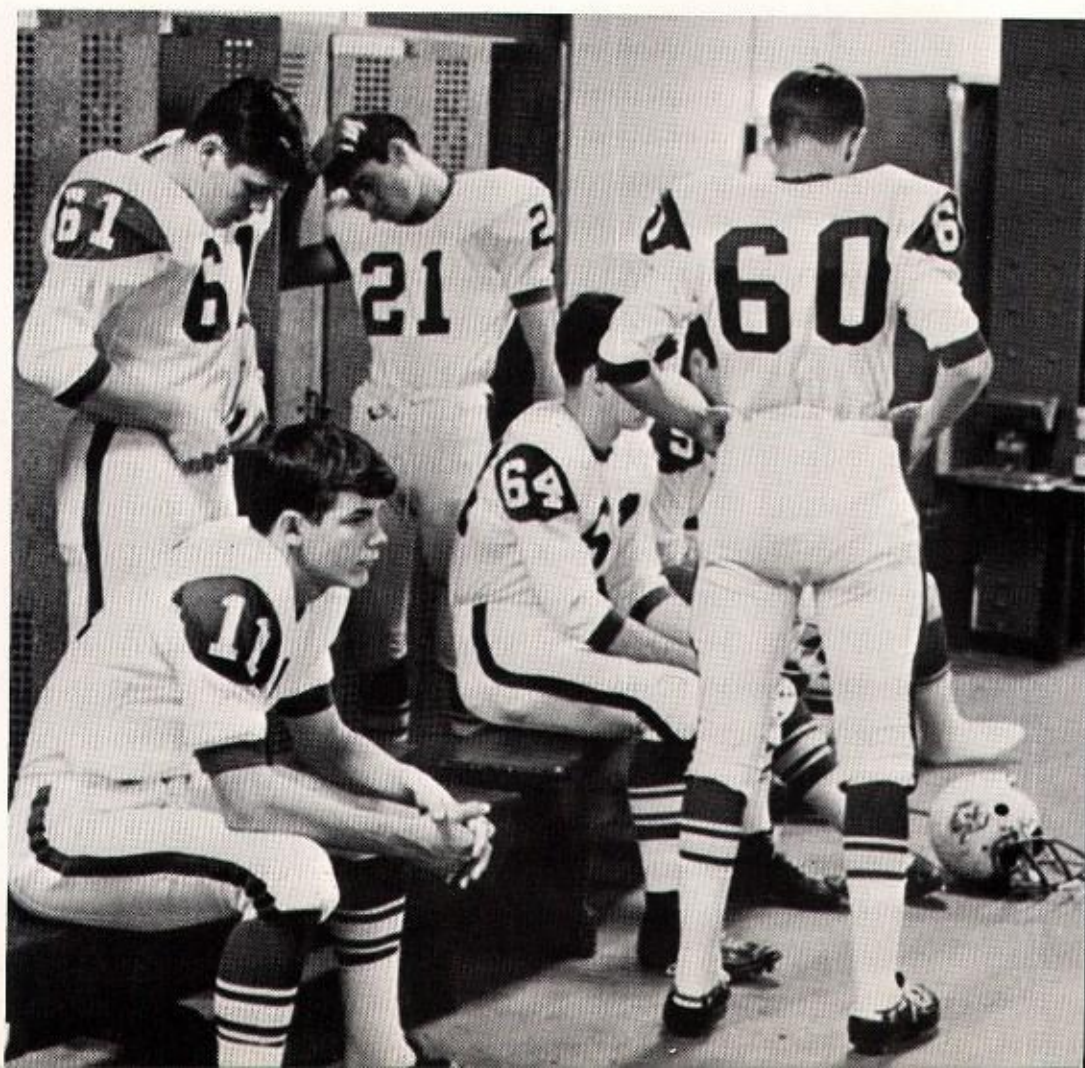

And I'll tell ya;
 that Hitchin' Post never had it so durn busy.
 Thar were lines thar all night long!
 And all them kids at last could let off
 some of them energies;
 they danced and danced,
 fast ones
 and slow ones too. Heh, heh!
 Well, all's I kin say, if it were up to me,
 I'd say jest about everybody thar had a pretty fair time—all dressed up in their Sunday-best and everything.
 Yep! That were the Sadie Hawkins Dance!
 And this is ole Pappy Yokem,
 who jest happens to be the presidin' guy
 at that thar Hitchin' Post.
 Yes sirree! That were some dance!

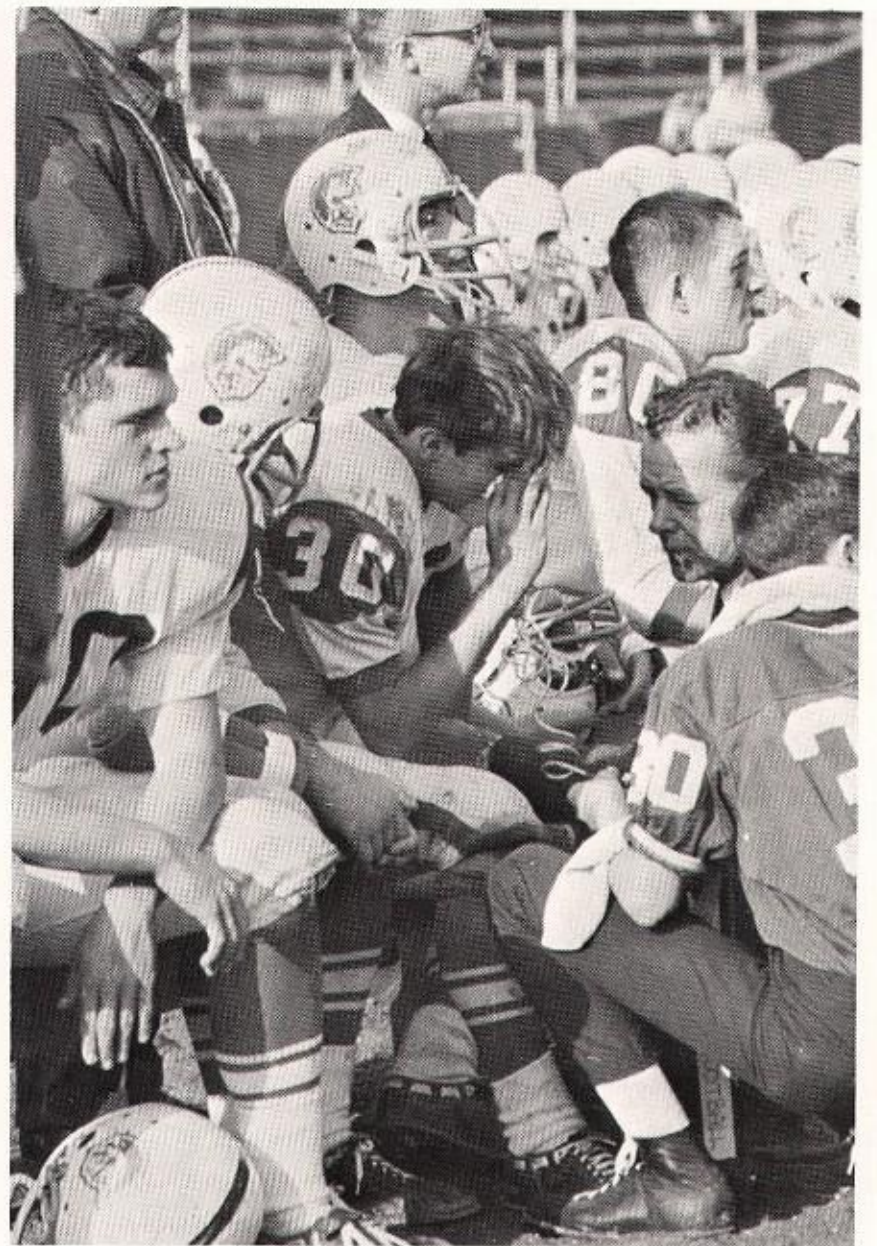

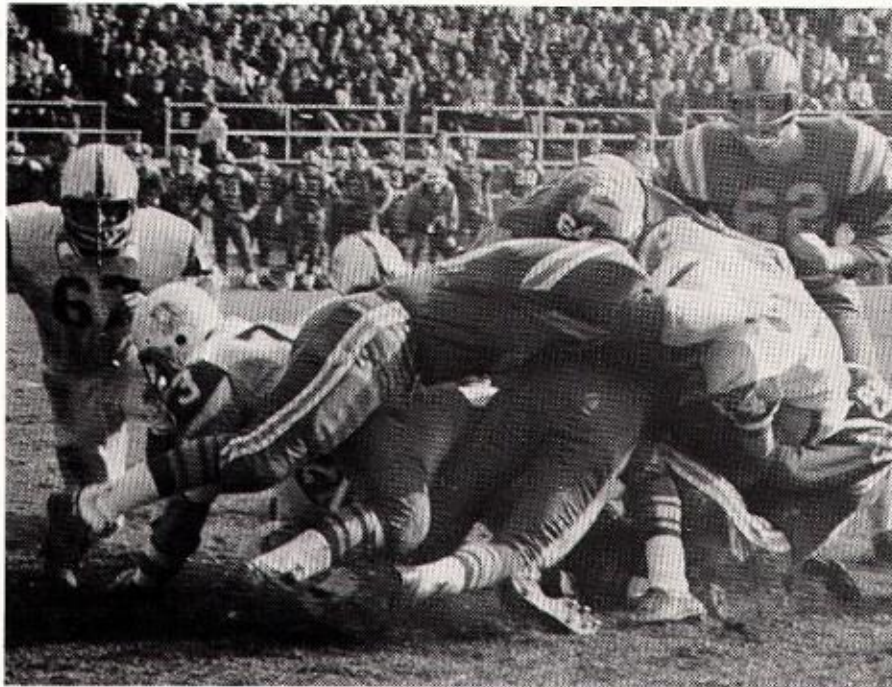

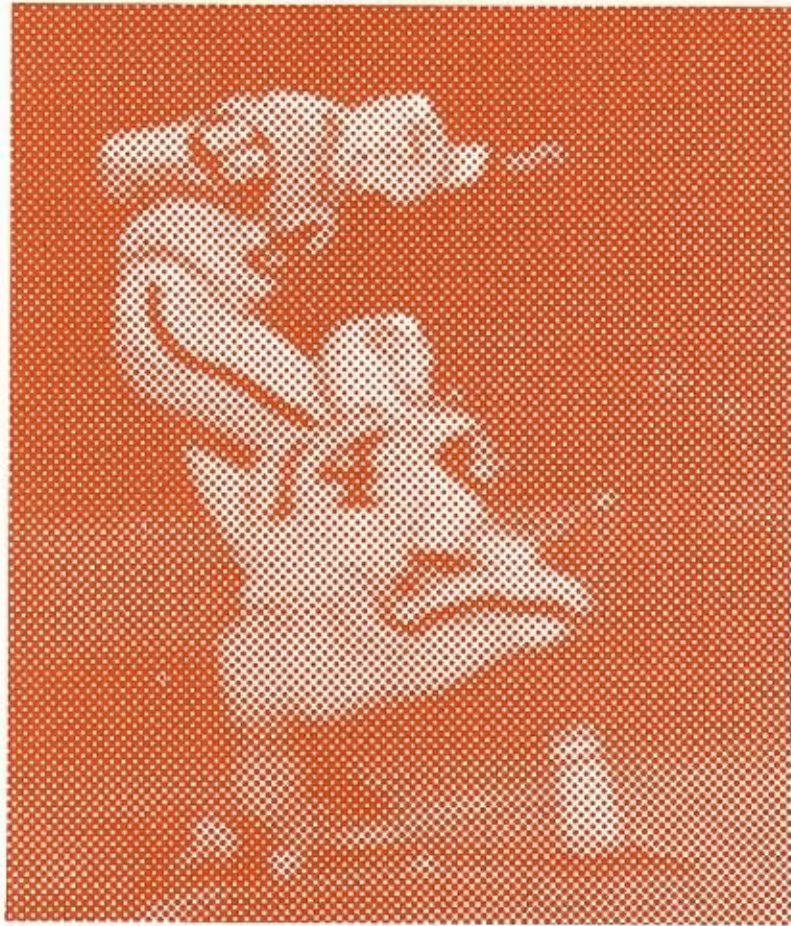

"FARMERS" MAKE IT BIG

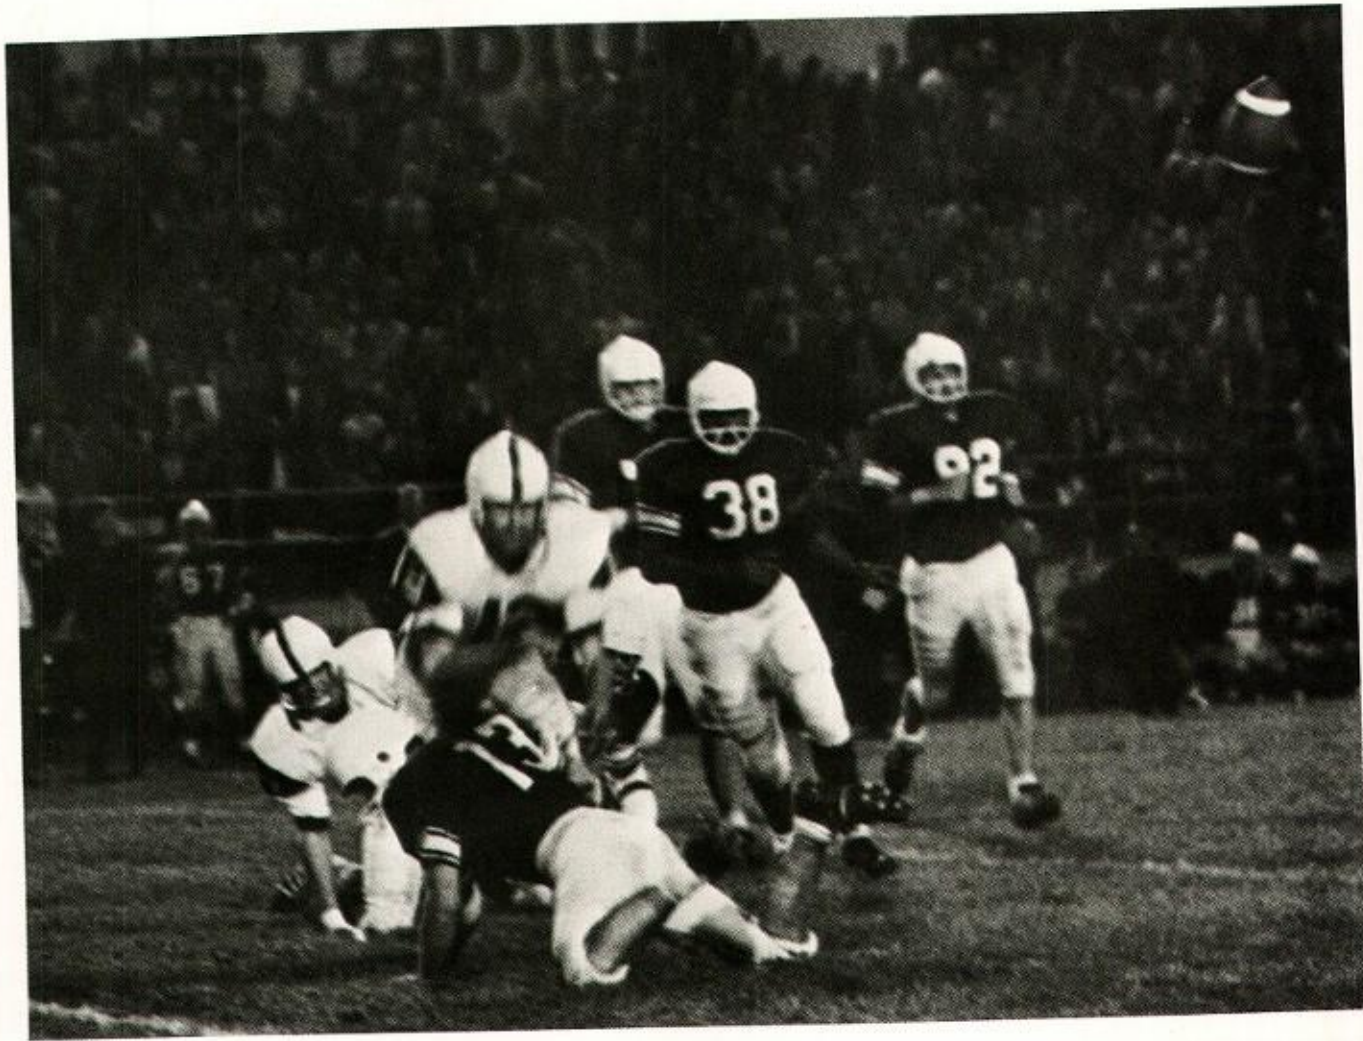

Play in
W.P.I.A.L.
Championship Game

The Spartans fought hard and long
 From start to finish.
 From the pep rally on Wednesday until
 The end of the final quarter,
 The hopes and dreams,
 Excitement and tenseness
 Mounted until they reached a peak
 On Saturday afternoon at Pitt Stadium.
 Both teams had a victorious half;
 Hempfield just picked the wrong one!
 As we admitted defeat,
 We proved that the so-called "farmers"
 Are not only good winners,
 But also good losers;
 Our shoulders squared, our chins went up.
 We were dejected, disappointed, sad;
 All of our high ambitions had been Knocked into the ground.
 But we were, and are, proud too—
 Proud of our 10 and 0 record,
 Of our Foothills Conference Championship,
 Of our own great team.

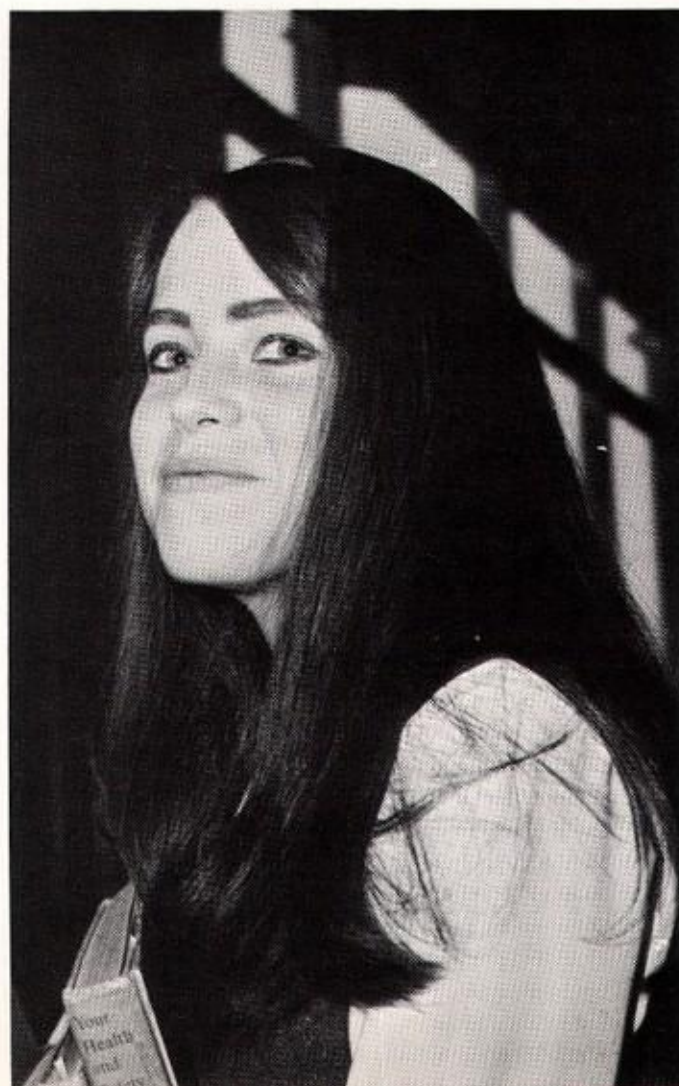

This is the age of contrasts.
It is the time when there are girls with hair so long
As to appear like Rapunzel, or the ones with hair so Short, they resemble boys—boys of the past that is.
For today's males have taken to wearing hair as long,
If not longer than the girls.

And in the choosing of clothes, there are the long Granny gowns, the short mini-skirts, the topless and Suits resembling those of the Roaring 20's.

There are the pants suits for girls, the ruffled shirts
For boys, the paisleys, the prints, the checks the dots.
The bell bottoms, the plaid slacks (for boys), the soft and Feminine prints. Oh, by the way,
This is also the age of confusion—for adults!

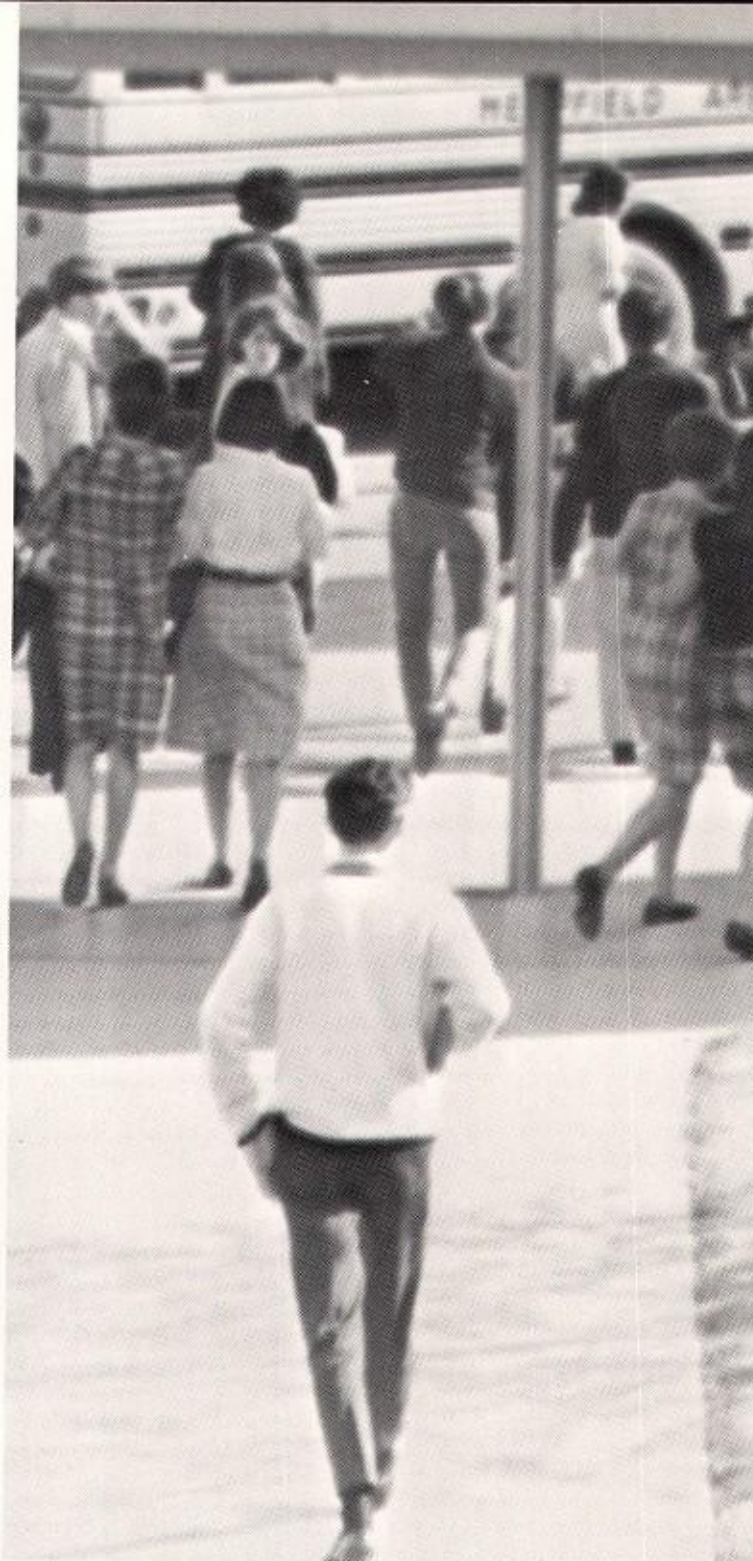

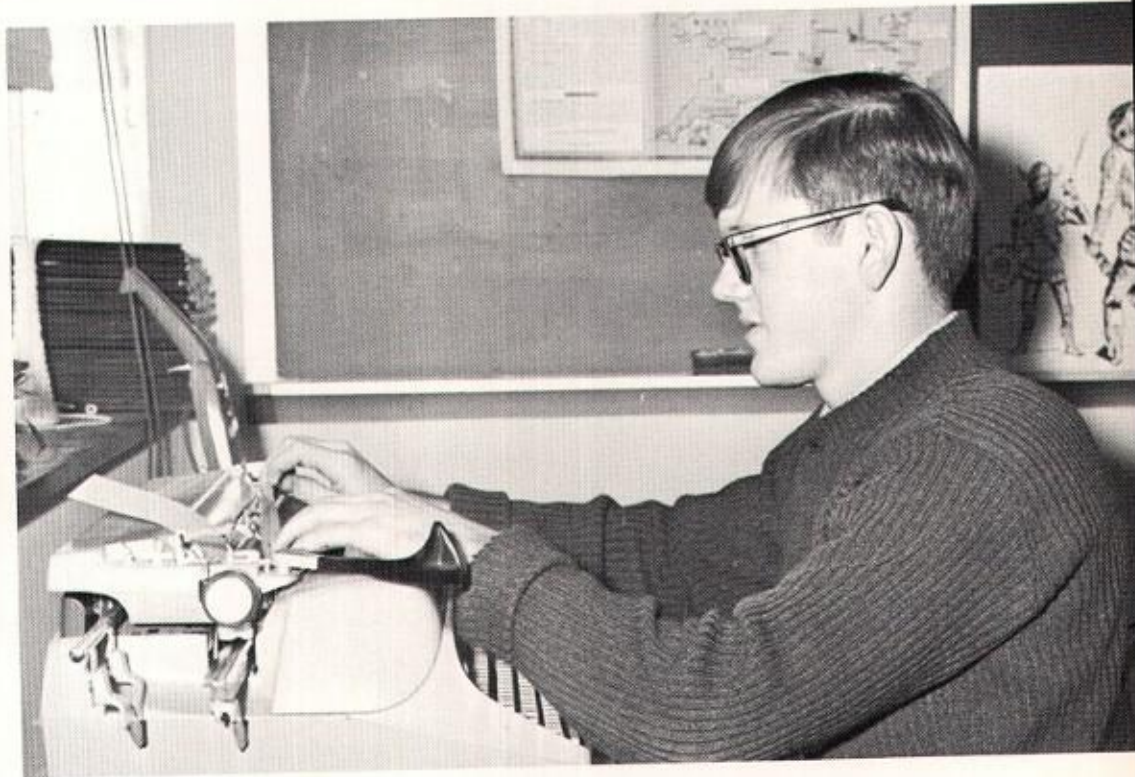

Royal Snowball

"Ho! Ho! Ho! Merry Christmas!"
Yes, at the Snowflake Soiree, all were there,
Even Santa Claus.
It was the dance to end all dances,
And the dance to end the year.
All who were there joined in the Holiday spirit with dancing and
Dancing and more dancing;
And to highlight our festivities,
Kenny Nye and Andrea Patterson
Were crowned King and Queen
To rule over this Royal dance.
Ah yes, it was quite a night:
Punch and cookies served to all of the Lucky people there;
And for the girls,
New dresses, a fancy hair-do, pretty flowers;
But don't forget the boys—
They had a great time and . . .
Empty pockets.

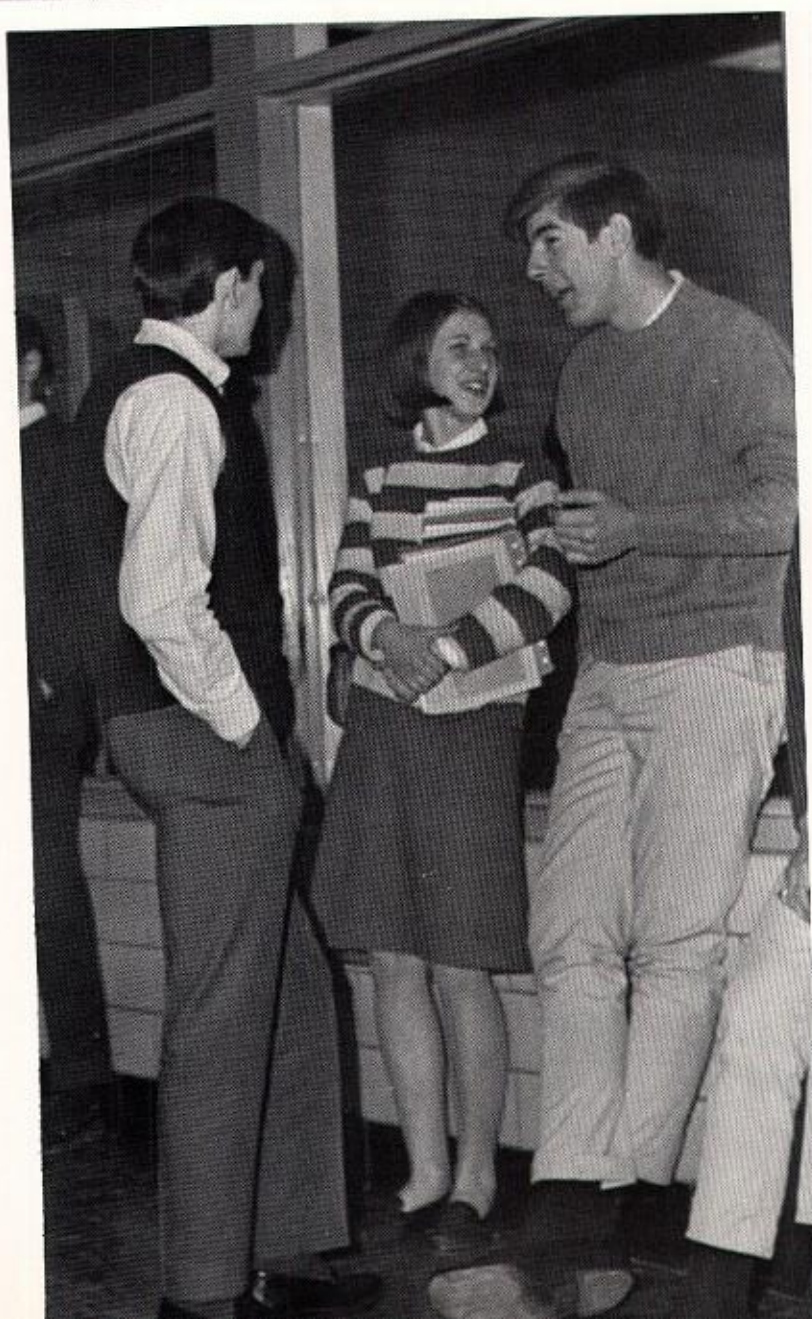

Noise, confusion, chaos,
Yells, cries of greeting, yelps of pain
All add up to one thing:
The school bus.
The school bus is
Packed and jammed and cramped
With students piled on top of each other
Like sardines in a can or Pebbles in a jar.
Over-crowded conditions, over-worked driver,
Over-zealous teen-agers, and over-all
A scene of destruction of school materials,
Of the passengers' arms and legs and feet.
This is why those who could Rode to school with a friend or drove themselves.
But we shouldn't complain;
After all, the school bus got us to school didn't it?

There is one place in our school that
 Is crowded and confused and noisy.
 It is quite hopeless at times, as when
 Your "hot" lunch turns out to be cold,
 When the milk machine suddenly becomes Temperamental and refuses to return your Change, and when, after searching for
 And finally finding a seat, it is saved.
 But here, in the cafeteria, we enjoy
 The chance of talking and socializing,
 And relaxing before the Afternoon classes begin.

Faculty and Administration

What is a teacher?
A teacher is one who inspires—
Who makes us want to create!
A teacher is someone who can make—
Or break your school year.
A teacher is the leader,
The one in charge.
A teacher can be a real pain—
Giving tests and flunking students.
Teachers can bring about the greatest respect
Or the strongest hatred.
A teacher is—believe it or not—
Really human;
With feelings, fears, likes, dislikes,
Hurts, happiness . . .
A teacher is many things:
A wife, a mother, a father, a writer,
A golfer, a philosopher, a sports fan,
A bride-to-be—
This is a teacher.

Cramming the night before and then
Just barely passing,
Wasting your precious time by
Catching a cat-nap in study hall,
The honor of an undefeated football team
Are yours,
Being allowed a little more freedom
Because you are now a senior—
This was your year in school.
This was your last chance to make it;
Now you are on your own.
This was living, working, hoping, achieving,
Dancing, and even sleeping.
This was the only way of obtaining that
All-important diploma and its
Rights and obligations that took twelve years
To achieve.
This was worth it!

Hempfield is a big school; and at first,
It seems three times its size. But as
The year goes on, the Sophomores
Become used to the hurrying, scurrying
Madness in our halls; the class officers,
Eddie Carlton, Treasurer, Jim Sundry,
President, Jay Baughman, Vice President,
And Janet Martin, Secretary, under the Leadership of Mr. Colin Wansor, were Elected; our rushing, bustling world
Becomes a part of them—as it has to Many hundreds before them.

athletics

The school year officially begins with
The glaring of our stadium's lights onto
A motley group at the football games.

This is a happy-go-lucky crowd that Seems to have not a care in the world,
But which is ready and waiting for the Game to start and the action to begin:

The year goes on, as do the sports.

We go from the speedy and nimble

Basketball players to wrestling,

Known for the independence of its

Players and by their silent,

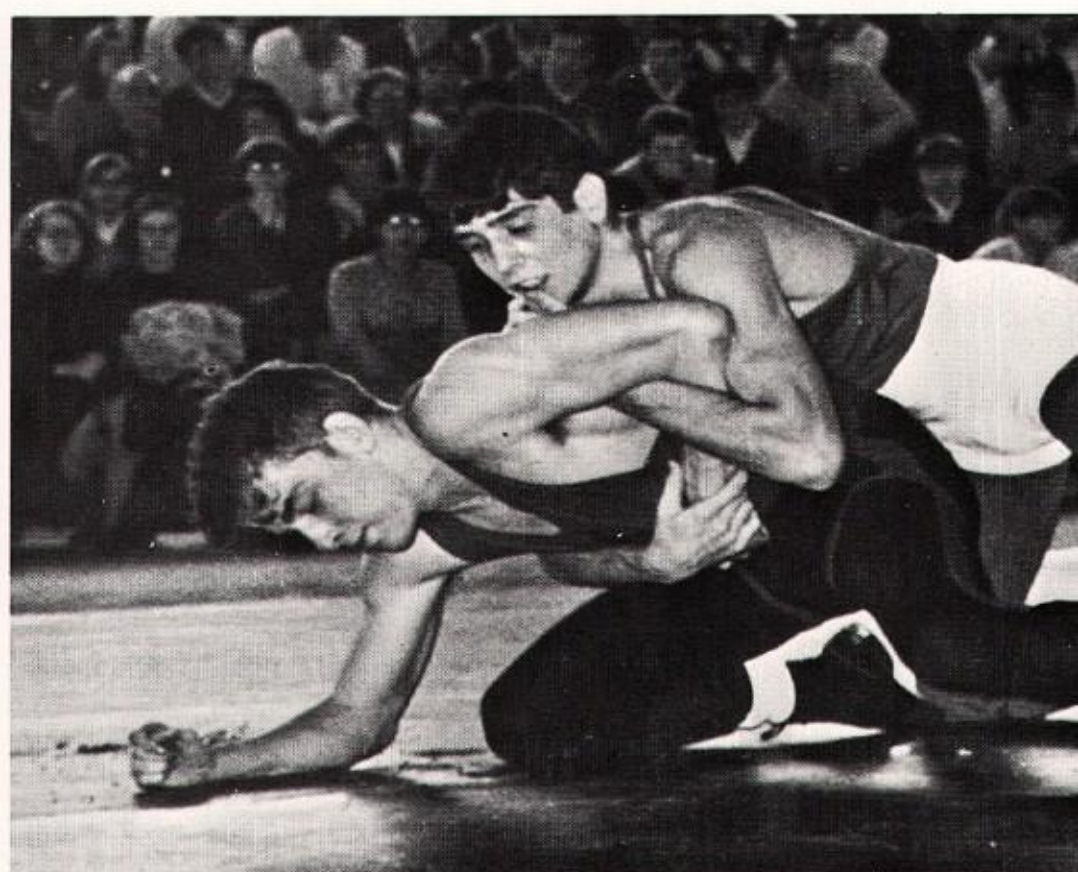

Dominating will to win.

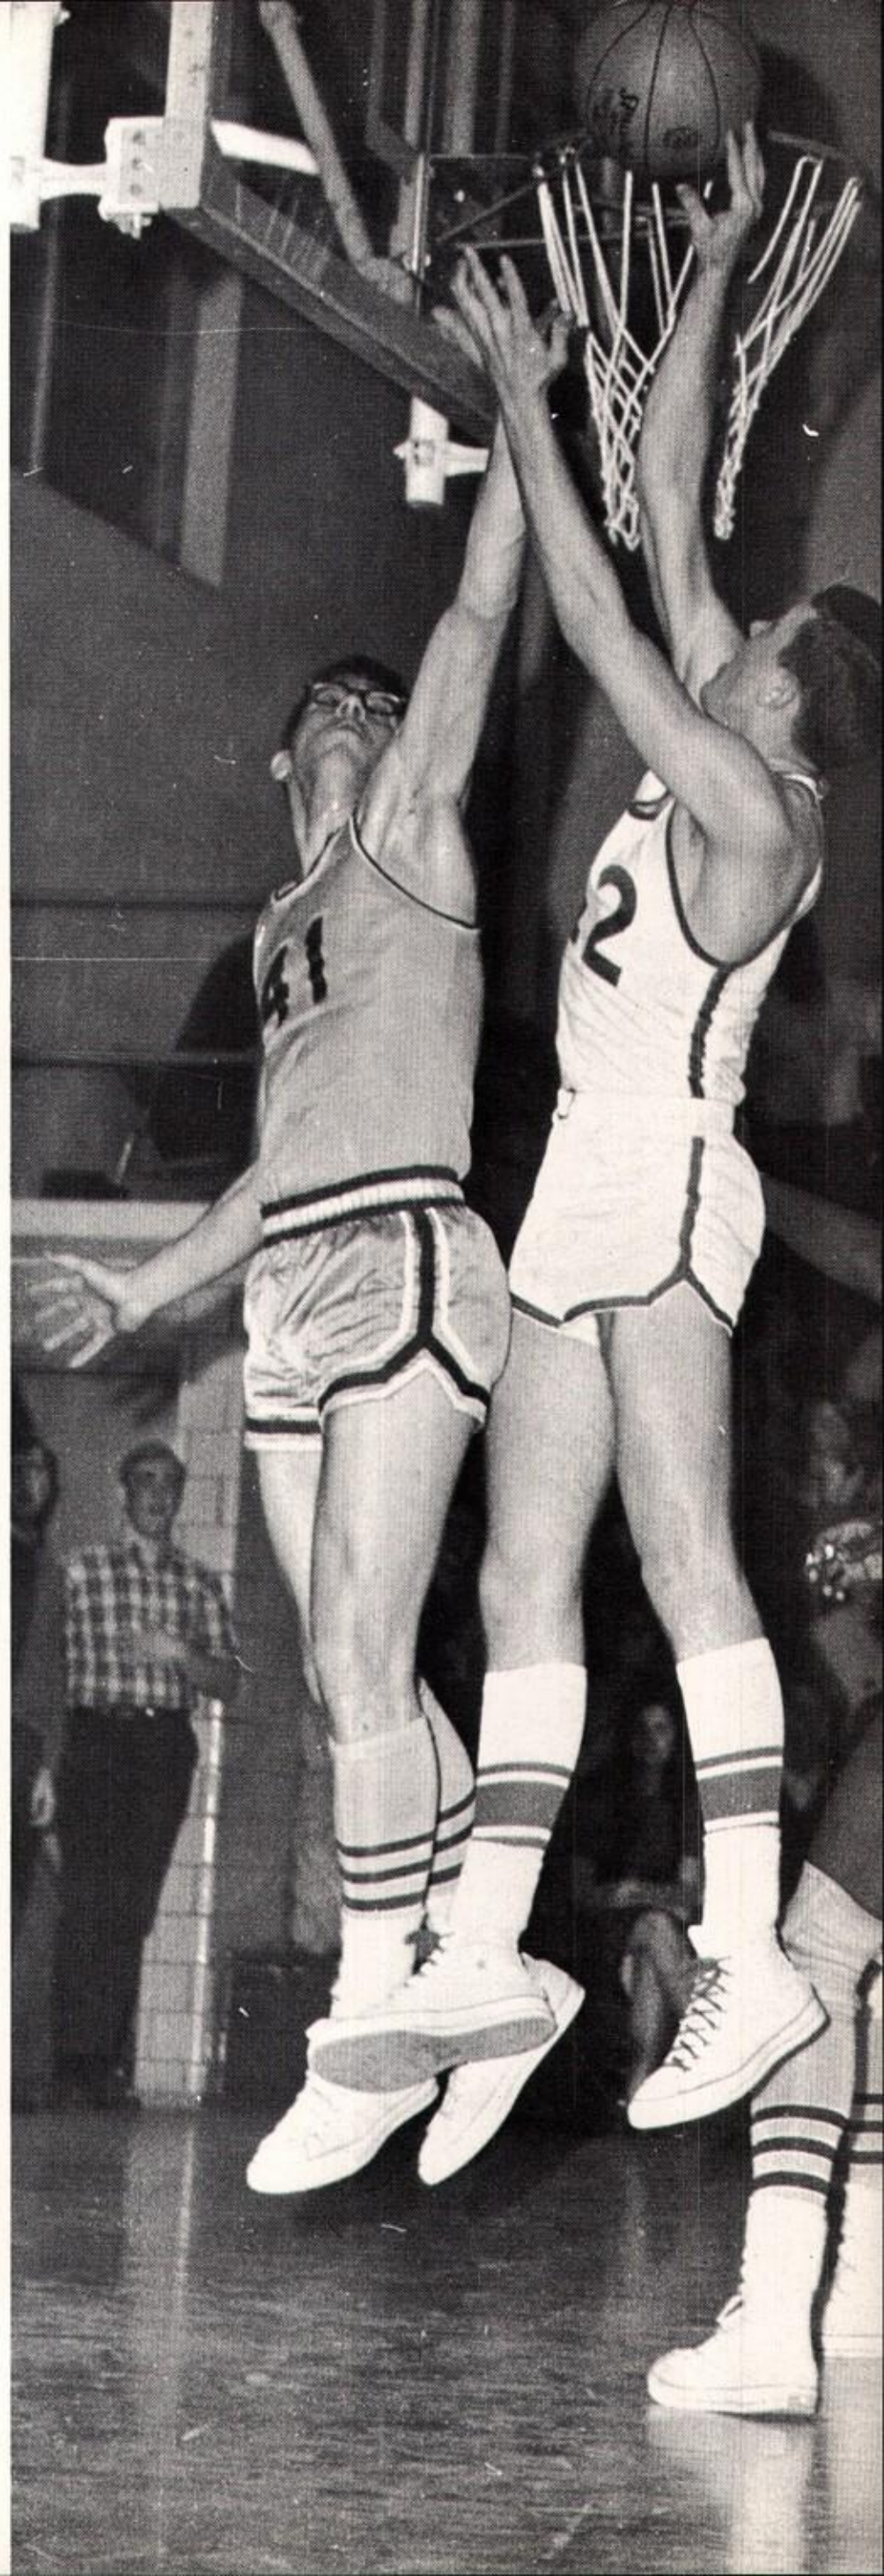

Then, into swimming and track,

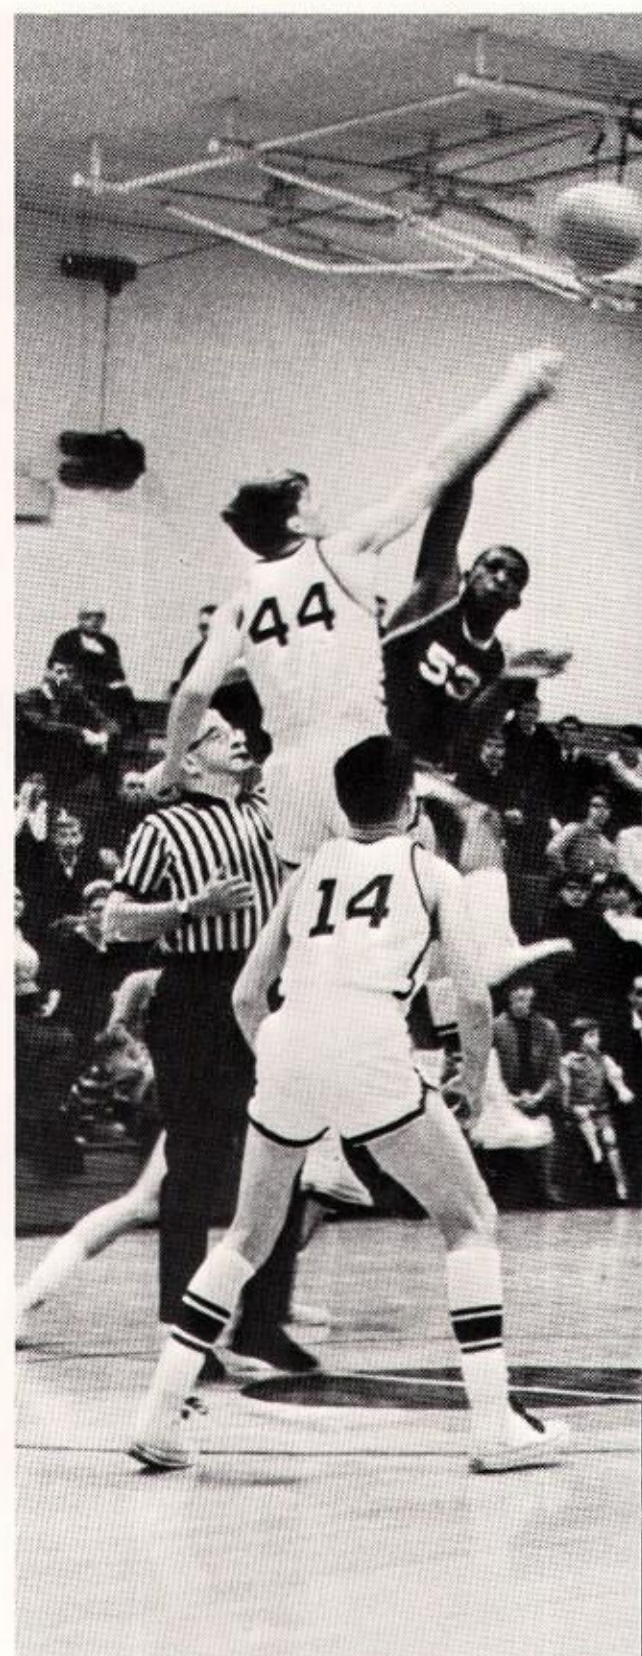

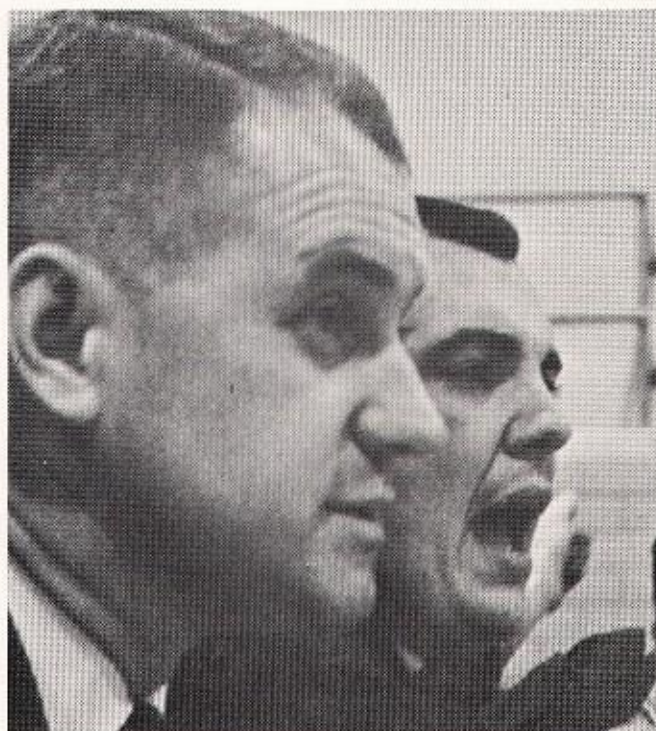

Golf and baseball—each a different

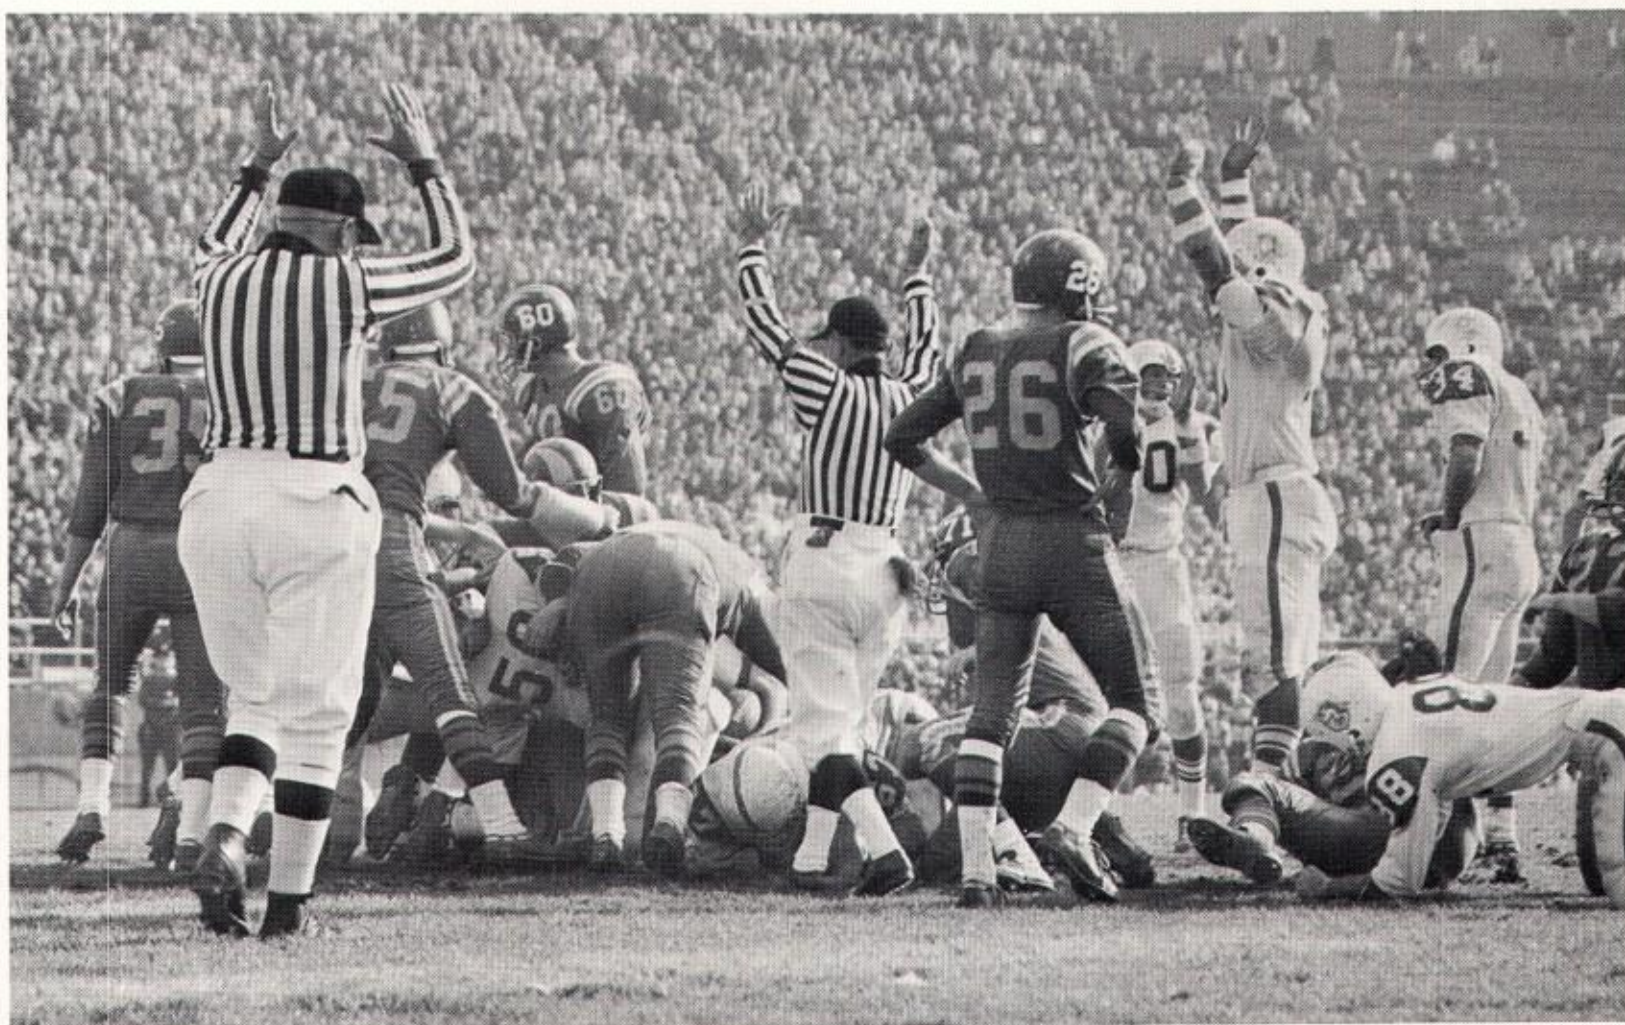

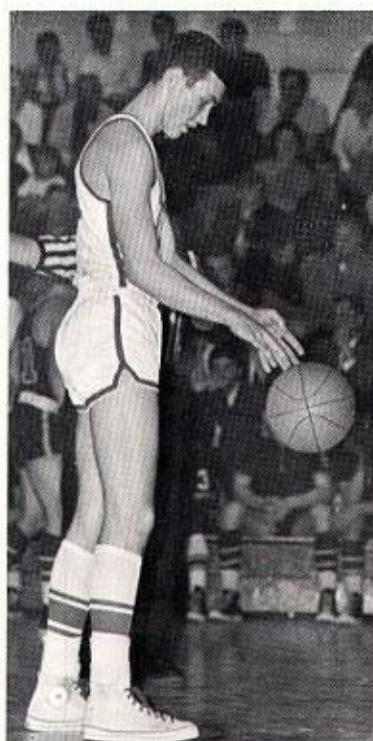

Development of skill or endurance,

Achievement and good sportsmanship.

A comparatively young school, Hempfield has made quite a name for itself. It has earned the pride and respect of not only its students, but of the entire community, by being the Foothills Conference Champ and also by having an undefeated season. A man who should know, Coach Abraham, said, "I have personal pride in our boys this year, not only in the sacrifices they made for the team but also in their general attitude. They were a very coachable group of boys." This was Hempfield's first undefeated season in the history of our school; in itself, this is one of the highest honors we can achieve, but there were also those players who earned special recognition.

Football

Football is a game of action;
It is a game filled with a variety of emotion.
The desire to win is overpowering—
Determination runs strong.
The unbreakable decision of Steve Karas
To break through the line and score
Is visible in his every movement;
The look of desperation
On the face of a Mt. Lebo player as he Watches Hempfield score a touchdown,
Shows what many players, on many teams,
Have felt and thought.
We see anger and triumph, fear and pure joy.
Keith Cline and Mike DePaul's
Contribution to a winning game
Is seen only as a blur of action
In a picture,
But at the time was a
Mixture of ambition and pride
For the players.
Yes, football is quite a game!

Foul shots and lay-ups,
 Jump balls and hook shots—
 These words may sound odd and
 Unfamiliar to many students,
 But to the avid basketball fans
 They represent an exciting and
 Tense game in which a different
 Test for competence and ingenuity
 Is shown in each and every game.
 And also in each game, our boys
 Tried their best to play a good game
 And to come out as the victors.
 Although they didn't end as champs,
 They deserve congratulations on the way
 They stuck with it—they played until the Final second in the final game . . . Congratulations!

Clubs and Organizations

The halls are quiet, empty, still;
There is a tenseness—a waiting feeling—

In the air. In homerooms,
There is an air of expectancy;

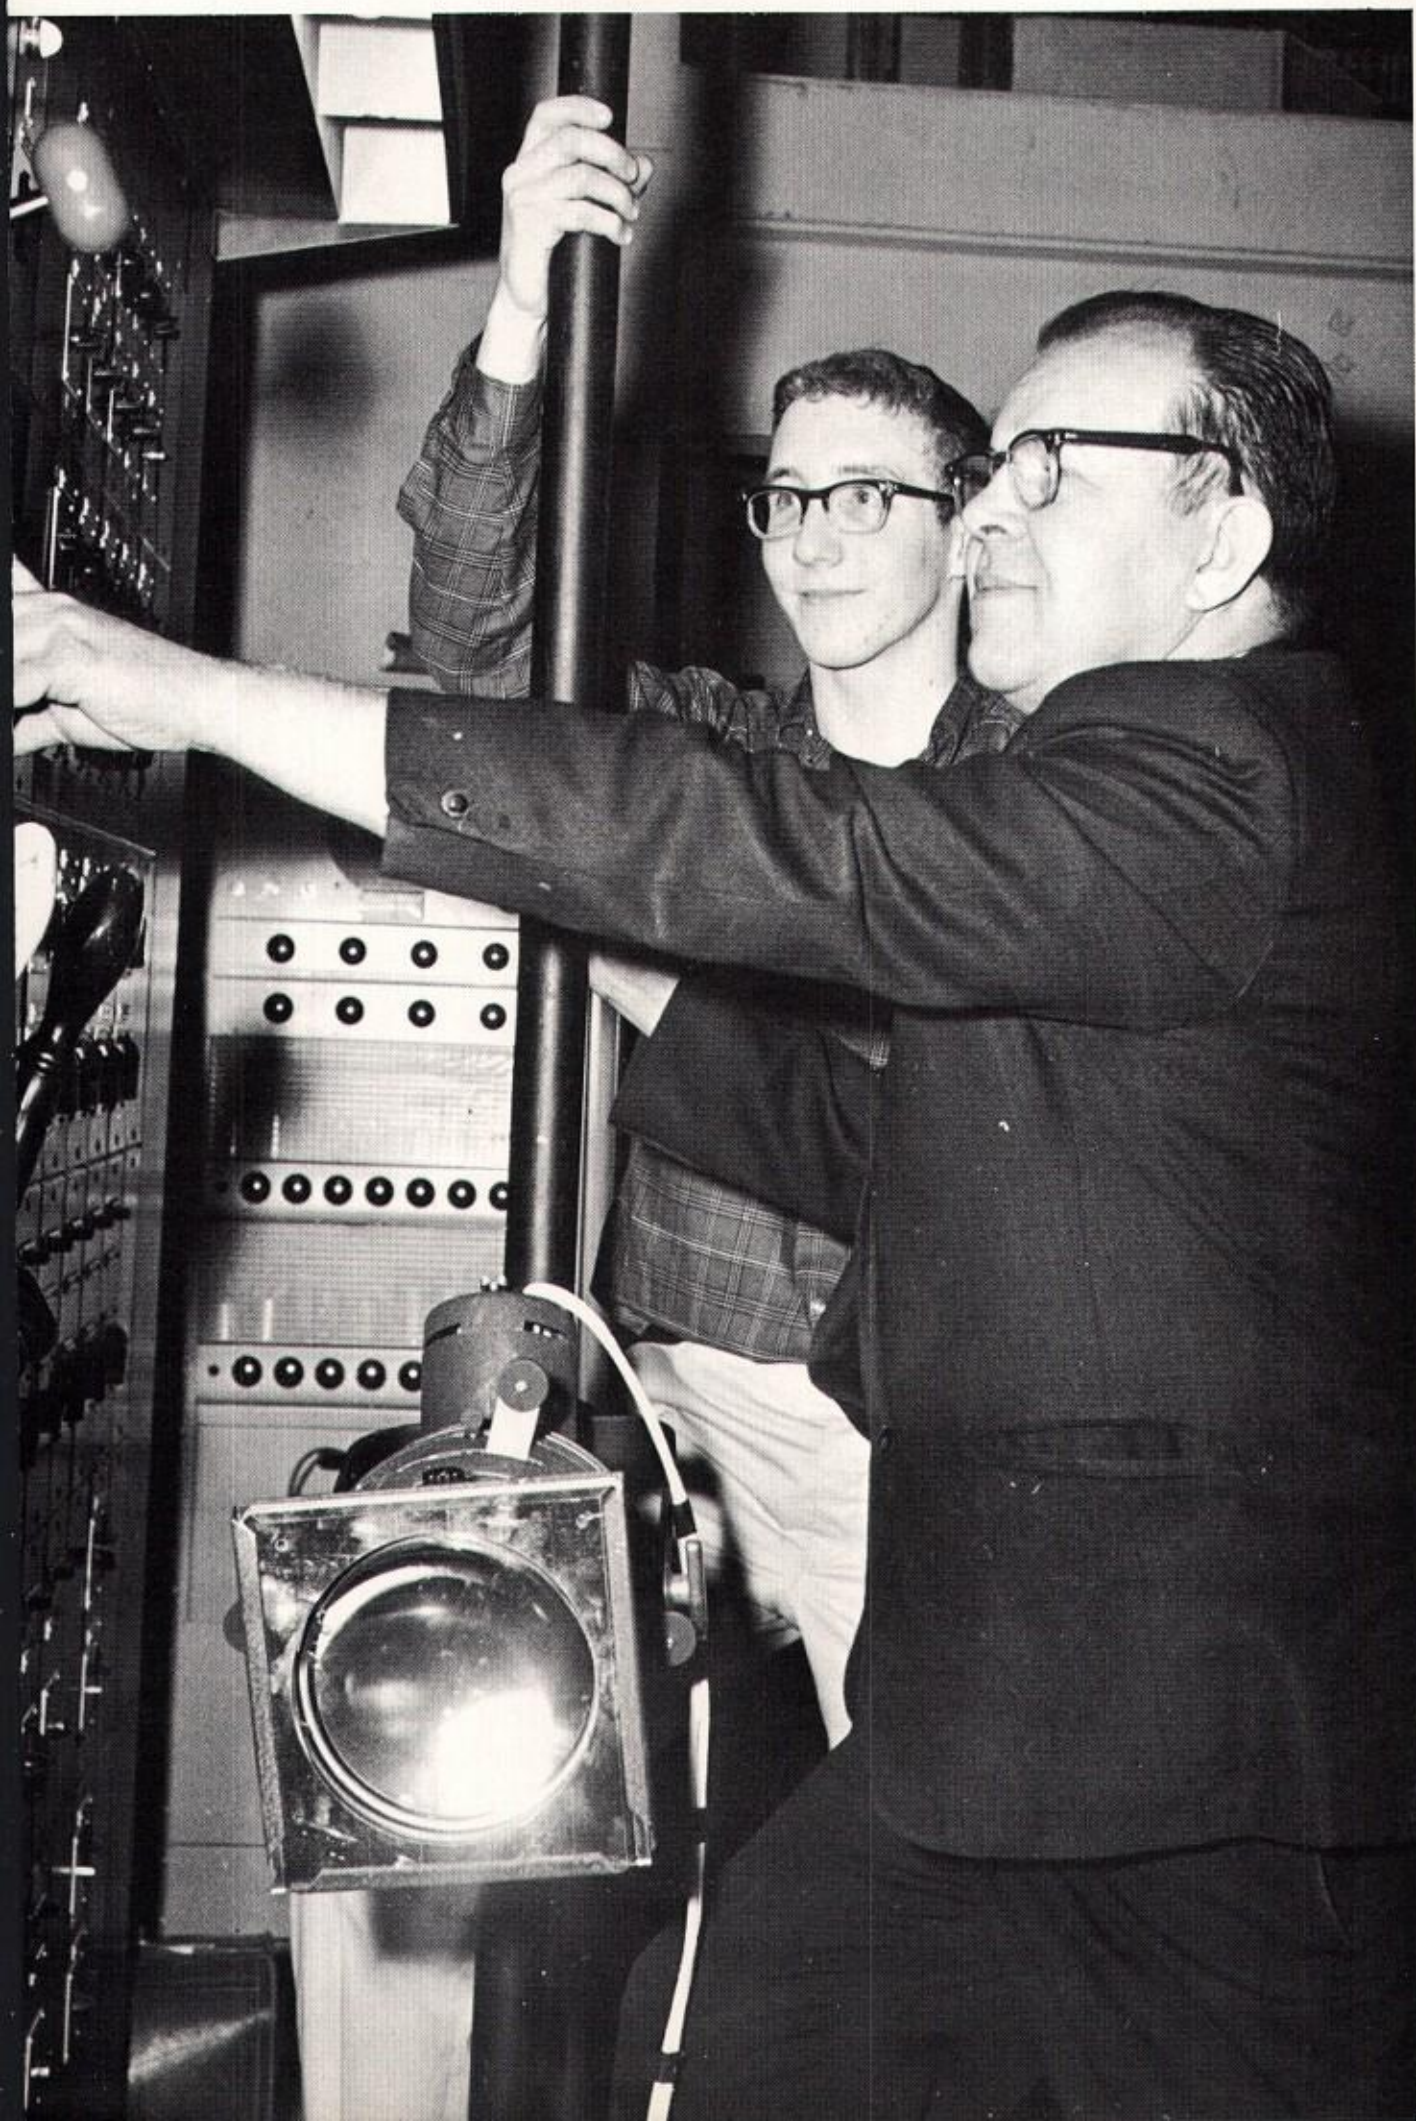

As if, at the drop of a pin,
Every student would rush out in the hall
And go somewhere!

Right! This is exactly what happens.

At the ring of a bell, the halls become
Busy hi-ways and crammed intersections,
Bursting at the seams with teens going to
One of the most vital aspects of school life—

Their break from routine, their chance to Speak out and to run things their own way,
Their clubs and activities!

Music

Music is an art.

It is more than a credit, more than becoming

Perfect in the song you are to play.

Music is not just blowing on a horn or

Staying late after school to practice.

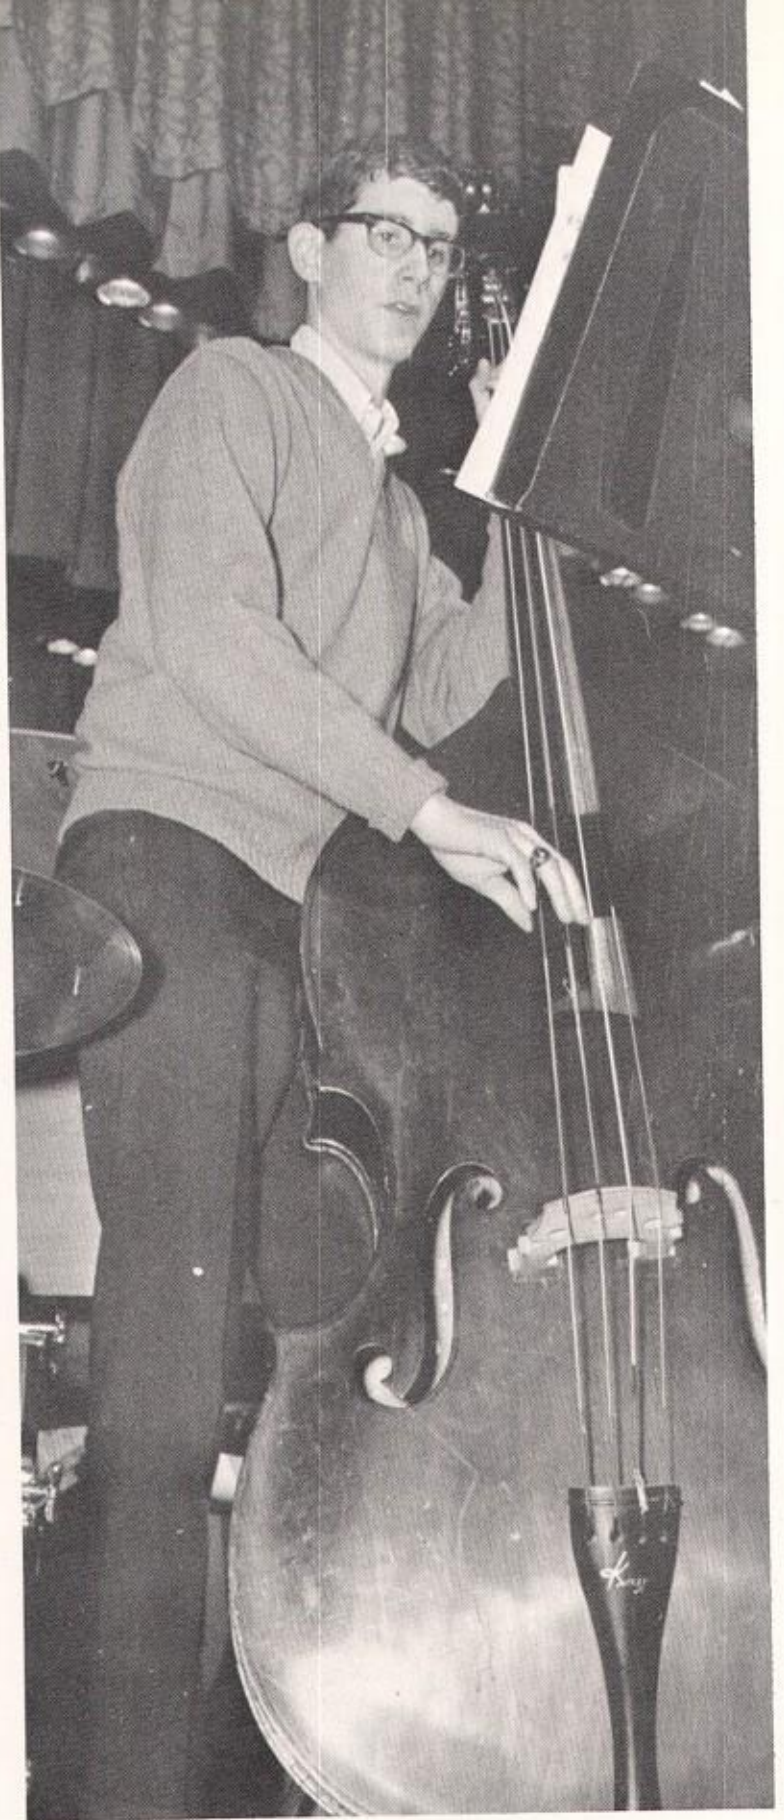

Music is something that comes from inside you;

It is a feeling, a desire to express in melody

And rhythm the way you feel about something.

Music is creating and imagining, and is a way to Bring enjoyment and relaxation to the listeners.
